

THT Overhead Gateway Sign

The following diagram has been used in several Tobacco Heritage Trail extension projects to acquire THT Overhead Gateway Signs. Originally these plans called for using old railroad rails and had extensive brickwork at the base. These modified plans call for a black steel tube post and no brickwork, which should result in a much less costly sign.

